STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

I

Act 8 of 1962.- At present the Madras Shops and Establishments Act, 1947, is in force in Madras area. The Mysore Shops and Establishments Act, 1948, is in force in the Mysore area. The Hyderabad Shops and Establishments Act, 1957, is in force in Hyderabad area and the Bombay Shops and Establishments Act, 1948, is in force in the Bombay area. It is considered expedient to have a uniform law in the State of Mysore for the regulation of the terms and conditions of work and employment in shops and commercial establishments. The Government of India had circulated a Draft Bill for consideration of State Governments to initiate legislation on similar lines where necessary. Both these objects will be served by enacting legislation on the lines of this Bill.

(Published in the Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary) Part IV-2A dated 12th February 1959 as No.2653 at page. 32.)

II

Amending Act 36 of 1966.—According to sub-section (2) of section 39 of the Act, all appeals by employees removed or dismissed from service lie to the prescribed authority or if no authority is prescribed, to the Commissioner of Labour. This means that only one appellate authority for the entire State has to deal with the appeals involving much difficulty and inconvenience to all persons concerned. It is considered necessary to amend the Act to provide for appeals to different authorities in different places depending on the area from which the appeal arises and the class or category to which an establishment belongs. It is also considered necessary to provide for the transfer of appeals under section 39 (2) pending before the Commissioner of Labour to the appropriate appellate authority.

Hence this Bill.

III

Amending Act 4 of 1969.—It is proposed to provide for supervision of the work of Labour Inspectors who are appointed as Inspectors under the Mysore Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1961, by the Assistant Labour Commissioners and the Labour Officers. This cannot be done unless the Assistant Labour Commissioners and Labour Officers are also made Inspectors under the said Act. There is no provision for the appointment of the Additional Inspector under the Act, and it is proposed to provide for such appointments.

The Mysore Maternity Benefit Act 1959 has been repealed and the Maternity Benefit Act 1961 (Central Act 53 of 1961) has been brought into force. It is therefore necessary to amend Chapter V of the Act suitably.

Hence the Bill.

(Obtained from file LAW 81 LGN 67.)

IV

Amending Act 33 of 1982.—In his Budget speech for the year 1982–83 the Finance Minister indicated that in the interest of revenue and for better enforcement of the provision of the Act annual renewal of the registration of shops and commercial establishments would be provided under the Karnataka Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1961. The provision for renewal also facilitates maintenance of up-to date statistics of such establishments and would also result in better conditions of service for the employees.

Hence the Bill.

(Published in the Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary) Part IV-2A, dated 26th July 1982 as No. 588 at page. 4.)

V

Amending Act 17 of 1986.—The Food Corporation of India is a key Organisation in the food grains distribution programme in the State.

The establishments of the said Corporation are exempted from the provisions of the enactments similar to that of the Karnataka Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1961 in many of the States/Union territories in India.

It is considered, therefore, necessary to exempt this Organisation from the provisions of the Karnataka Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1961, as is done in the case of Postal, Telegraphic or Telephone Service etc., and organisations which supply power, light or water etc., to the public.

Hence the Bill.

VI

Amending Act 25 of 1997.—It is proposed to amend the Karnataka Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1961, to provide for:—

1962: KAR. ACT 8] Shops and Commercial Establishments 5

- (1) enhancing age limit of a child from 12 to 14 years, in definition of 'child'.
- (2) renewal of registration certificate once in five years instead of every year;
- (3) compulsory issue of appointment orders by the employers to the employees in writing indicating the name, designation and terms of conditions etc., of appointment within thirty days from the date of appointment in his establishment, by insertion of new section 6A.
- (4) enhancing the age limit from 12 to 14 and 15 to 18 in relation to hours of work of young persons.
- (5) fixing of weekly holidays within 30 days from the date of commencement of new establishment.
- (6) removal of minimum period of 240 days or more of work, to get entitled for leave with wages and certain other consequential amendments.
- (7) enhancing the age limit from 12 to 14 and 15 to 18 for the purpose of prohibition of employment of young persons.
- (8) separate enhanced punishment for employment of Children.
- (9) removal of the maximum limit of six months pay as compensation payable by the employer to an employee who is removed or dismissed without reasonable cause of proof of misconduct.
- (10) enhancement of punishments of certain offence.—

Hence the Bill.

(Published in the Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary) Part IV-2A, dated 21st February 1997 as No. 245 at page. 13.)

VII

Amending Act 11 of 2001.- The nature of work in information Technology establishments and Information Technology enabling services or Establishments; Bio-Technology and Research Centres of establishments of epidemic and other diseases, is such that it requires flexibility in terms of working hours as their work entails lot of mental work in terms of fault finding, imagination and reflection and design. So much so no time can be set out with regard to their working hours and even weekly holiday, except assigning task to be accomplished.

Therefore, it is considered necessary to amend the Karnataka Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1961 to give partial exemption regarding opening and closing hours and weekly holiday so as to provide flexi time.

Hence the Bill.

(Vide L.A. Bill No. 2 of 2001 File No. SAMVYASHAE 20 SHASANA 2000)

VIII

Amending Act 14 of 2002.- Section 25 of the Karnataka Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1961 prohibits employment of women and young persons during night. Establishments of Information Technology or Information Technology enabled service. develop software for foreign customers. The personnel in these establishments often work late in the night. The Personnel have to interact with their customers late in evenings or throughout the night depending upon the global part of the Country. These establishments employ good number of women workers. As section 25 prohibits employment of women during night it has affected working of the establishments. Software development is usually entrusted to a team which may also include women employees.

Therefore, in order to utilise the Services of women employees during night it is considered necessary to amend section 25 to empower the State Government to exempt any establishment of Information Technology or Information Technology enabled services from the provisions of that section relating to employment of women during night subject to the condition that the establishments provides facilities of transportation and security to such women employees.

Hence the Bill.

(Vide L.A. Bill No. 16 of 2002 File No. SAMVYASHAE 28 SHASANA 2001 DT: 30.8.2002)

IX

Amending Act 28 of 2005.- To avoid undue hardship to the owners of the shops and commercial establishments, in registering their establishments and also in renewal of their registration certificates it is proposed to amend section 4 of the Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1961 and to provide for deemed registration or renewal of registration certificate, in case the area Labour Inspector does not register or renew or fails to communicate the grounds on which registration/renewal was not done within thirty days from the date of receipt of such applications.

Provision is also made to impose penalty for false claim of the benefit of deemed registration with an imprisonment of not less than six months and with a fine which may extend to five thousand rupees.

Hence, the Bill.

(LA Bill No.15 of 2005)

X

Amending Act 12 of 2007.- The provisions of the Karnataka Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1961, provides only for penalty by way of fine or imprisonment and there is no provision for compounding of offences departmentally. Hence, it is concerned necessary to provide for composition of offences under the Karnataka Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1961 in order to reduce litigation and facilitate speedy recovery of dues.

Hence the Bill.

[L.A.Bill No.15 of 2007]

[Entry 24 of List III of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India.]

XI

Amending Act 40 OF 2020.- It is considered necessary to amend the Karnataka Shops and Commercial establishment Act, 1961 (Karnataka Act 08 of 1962) to allow women employees to work in a shops and establishments during night shift.

Hence, the Bill.

(8) If any employer has falsely claimed the benefit of deemed registration and has displayed such self certificate under sub-section (7), he shall on conviction be punished with an imprisonment of not less than six months and with a fine which may extend to five thousand rupees]¹

1. Sub-sections (6) (7)& (8) inserted by Act 28 of 2005 by notification. The Act is yet to be brought into force.

5. Change to be communicated to Inspector.—It shall be the duty of an employer to notify to the Inspector, in the prescribed form, any change in respect of any information contained in his statement under section 4, within fifteen days after the change has taken place. The Inspector shall, on receiving such notice and on being satisfied about its correctness, make the change in the register of establishments and shall amend the registration certificate or issue a fresh registration certificate, if necessary.

6. Closing of establishment to be communicated to Inspector.—The employer shall, within fifteen days of his closing the establishment, notify to the Inspector in writing the date of such closure and return the registration certificate. The Inspector shall, on receiving the information and being satisfied about its correctness, remove such establishment from the register of establishments and cancel the registration certificate:

Provided that if the Inspector does not receive the information, but is otherwise satisfied that the establishment has been closed, he may remove such establishment from such register.

¹[6A. Issue of appointment orders.—Every employer, employing any person in or in connection with his establishment, shall issue an appointment order in writing indicating the name, designation, wage scale of such person and terms and conditions of his employment and serve the same on such person within thirty days from the date of appointment in his establishment:

1. Inserted by Act 25 of 1997 w.e.f. 12.2.1998.

Provided that in case of employees appointed in any establishment prior to the commencement of the Karnataka Shops and Commercial Establishments (Amendment) Act, 1997, the employer of such establishment shall, if he has not yet issued any appointment order in writing to such employee, communicate in writing to the employee incorporating therein his name, designation and wage scale and the terms and conditions of employment and serve the same on him within thirty days from the date of such commencement.]¹

CHAPTER III HOURS OF WORK

7. Daily and weekly hours.—(1) No employee in any establishment shall be required or allowed to work for more than nine hours on any day and forty-eight hours in any week:

Provided that the total number of hours of work including overtime shall not exceed ten hours in any day except on days of stock-taking and preparation of accounts:

Provided further that the total number of overtime hours worked by an employee does not exceed fifty in a period of three continuous months.

(2) No young person ¹[x x x]¹ shall be allowed to work in any establishment for more than five hours in a day.

1. Omitted by Act 25 of 1997 w.e.f. 12.2.1998.

8. Extra wages for overtime work.—(1) Where an employee works in any establishment for more than nine hours in any day or for more than forty-eight hours in any week he shall in respect of such overtime work be entitled to wages at twice the rate of normal wages.

(2) For the purposes of this section “normal wages” means the basic wages plus such allowances, including the cash equivalent of the advantage accruing through the concessional sale to workers of food grains and other articles, as the worker is for the time being entitled to, but does not include a bonus.

(3) The cash equivalent of the advantage accruing through the concessional sale to a worker of food grains and other articles shall be computed as often as may be prescribed on the basis of the maximum quantity of food grains and other articles admissible to a standard family.

Explanation 1.—“standard family” means a family consisting of an employee, his or her spouse and two children below the age of fourteen years requiring in all three adult consumption units.

Explanation 2.—“adult consumption unit” means the consumption unit of a male above the age of fourteen years; and the consumption unit of a female above the age of fourteen years and that of a child below the age of fourteen years shall be calculated at the rates of .8 and .6 respectively of one adult consumption unit.

(4) The State Government may make rules prescribing,-

- (a) the manner in which the cash equivalent of the advantage accruing through the concessional sale to a worker of food grains and other articles shall be computed;
- (b) the registers that shall be maintained in an establishment for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this section.

9. Interval for rest.—The periods of work of an employee in an establishment each day shall be so fixed that no period shall exceed five hours and that no such person shall work for more than five hours before he has had an interval of rest of at least one hour.

10. Spreadover.—The periods of work of an employee in an establishment shall be so fixed that, inclusive of his interval for rest, they shall not spreadover more than twelve hours in any day.

11. Opening and closing hours.—(1) No establishment shall on any day, be opened earlier than and closed later than such hours as may be fixed by a notification issued by the State Government:

Provided that any customer who was being served or was waiting to be served in any establishment at the hour fixed for its closing may be served during the quarter of an hour immediately following such hour.

(2) Before issuing a notification under sub-section (1), the State Government shall hold an enquiry in the prescribed manner.

(3) The State Government may, for the purpose of this section, fix different hours for different establishments or different classes of establishments or for different areas or for different times of the year.

12. Weekly Holidays.—(1) Every establishment shall remain closed for one day of the week. The employer shall fix such date at the beginning of the year, 1[or within thirty days from the date of commencement of establishments, as the case may be]1 notify it to the Inspector and specify it in a notice prominently displayed in a conspicuous place in the establishment. The employer shall not alter such date more often than once in three months, shall notify the alteration to the Inspector, and shall make the necessary change in the notice in the establishment.

1. Inserted by Act 25 of 1997 w.e.f. 12.2.1998.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the State Government may allow an establishment to remain open throughout the week if it is satisfied that the establishment employs additional staff for meeting the requirements of sub-section (3) of this section.

(3) Every employee in an establishment shall be given at least one whole day in a week as a holiday for rest:

Provided that in establishments in which rest for one-and-a-half days in a week is allowed, such period of rest shall be continued.

(4) It shall not be lawful for an employer to call an employee at, or for an employee to go to, his establishment or any other place for any work in connection with the business of his establishment on a weekly holiday given to the employee under sub-section (3) or on a day on which such establishment remains closed.

(5) No deduction shall be made from the wages of an employee in any establishment on account of the holiday given to him under sub-section (3). If any employee is employed on daily wages, he shall nonetheless be paid his wages for the weekly holiday.

13. Selling outside establishments prohibited after closing hours.—Save as provided by or under any other enactment for the time being in force, no person shall carry on, in or adjacent to a street or public place, the sale of any goods after the hour fixed under section 11 for the closing of establishments dealing in the same class of goods in the locality in which such street or public place is situated:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to the sale of newspapers and such other articles as may be exempted by notification by the State Government.

CHAPTER IV

ANNUAL LEAVE WITH WAGES

14. Application of Chapter.—The provisions of this Chapter shall not operate to the prejudice of any rights to which an employee may be entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service:

Provided that where such award, agreement or contract of service provides for a longer leave with wages or weekly holidays than are provided in this Chapter, the employee shall be entitled to only such longer leave or weekly holidays, as the case may be.

15. Annual leave with wages.—1[(1) Every employee in an establishment shall be entitled to leave with wages and shall be allowed to avail such leave for the number of days calculated at the rate of,-

- (i) one day for every twenty days work performed by him, in case of an adult;

(ii) one day for every fifteen days of work performed by him, in case of a young person;

Explanation: For the purpose of this sub-section,—

(a) any day of lay-off, by agreement or contract as permissible under the standing order or for any other reasons beyond the employer's control;

(b) in the case of female employee, maternity leave for any number of days not exceeding twelve weeks; and

(c) the leave earned in the year prior to that in which the leave is enjoyed:

-shall be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked in an establishment for the purposes of computation of leave under this section, but the employee shall not earn leave for that period.]¹

1. Substituted by Act 25 of 1997 w.e.f. 12.2.1998.

1. Omitted by Act 25 of 1997 w.e.f. 12.2.1998.

(3) Every employee shall also be entitled during the first twelve months of continuous service and during every subsequent twelve months of such service in any establishment to leave with wages for a period not exceeding twelve days, on the ground of any sickness incurred or accident sustained by him or for any other reasonable cause.

(4) If an employee is discharged or dismissed from service during the course of the year he shall be entitled to leave with wages at the rates laid down in sub-section (1) even if he has not worked for the entire period specified in sub-section (1) ¹[x x x]¹ entitling him to earn leave.

1. Omitted by Act 25 of 1997 w.e.f. 12.2.1998.

(5) If an employee entitled to any leave under sub-section (3) is discharged or dismissed from service when he is sick or suffering from the result of an accident, the employer shall pay him the amount payable under this Act in respect of the period of the leave to which he was entitled at the time of his discharge or dismissal, in addition to the amount, if any, payable to him under sub-section (4).

(6) In calculating leave under this section, fraction of leave of half a day or more shall be treated as one full day's leave, an fraction of less than half a day shall be omitted.

(7) If an employee does not in any one calendar year take the whole of the leave allowed to him under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), as the case may be, any leave not taken by him shall be added to the leave to be allowed to him in the succeeding calendar year:

¹[Provided that, the total number of the days of leave that may be carried forward to a succeeding year shall not exceed forty five days.]¹

1. Substituted by Act 08 of 2021 w .e.f. 19.02.2021

Provided further that an employee who has applied for leave with wages but has not been given such leave in accordance with any scheme laid down in sub-sections (10) and (11) shall be entitled to carry forward the unavailed leave without any limit.

(8) An employee may at any time apply in writing to the manager of the establishment, not less than ten days before the date on which he wishes his leave to begin, to take all the leave or any portion thereof allowable to him during the calendar year:

Provided that the number of times in which leave may be taken during any year shall not exceed three or such number as may be agreed upon between the employer and the employee.

(9) If any employee wants to avail himself of the leave with wages due to him under sub-section (3), he shall be granted such leave even if the application for leave is not made within the time specified in sub-section (8), and in such a case wages as admissible under section 17 shall be paid not later than fifteen days from the date on which the leave begins.

(10) For the purpose of ensuring continuity of work in an establishment, the employer in agreement with the representatives of employees therein, chosen in the prescribed manner, may formulate a scheme in writing whereby the grant of leave allowable under this section may be regulated.

(11) A scheme formulated under sub-section (10) shall be posted in convenient places in the premises of the establishment and shall be in force for a period for twelve months from the date on which it comes into force and may thereafter be renewed, with or without modification, for a further period of twelve months at a time by the employer in agreement with the representatives of the employees as specified in sub-section (10).

(12) An application for leave which does not contravene the provisions of sub-section (8) shall not be refused, unless the refusal is in accordance with the scheme for the time being in operation under sub-sections (10) and (11).

(13) If the employment of an employee who is entitled to leave under sub-section (1) ¹[x x x]¹ is terminated by the employer before he has taken the entire leave to which he is entitled or if having applied for and having not been granted such leave, the employee quits his employment before he has taken the leave, the employer shall pay him the amount payable under section 16 in respect of the leave not taken, and such payment shall be made, where the employment of the employee is terminated by the employer, before the expiry of the second working day after such termination, and where an employee quits his employment, on or before the next pay day.

1. Omitted by Act 25 of 1997 w.e.f. 12.2.1998.

(14) The unavailed leave of an employee shall not be taken into consideration in computing the period of any notice required to be given before discharge or dismissal.

16. Wages during leave period.—(1) For the leave allowed to him under section 15, an employee shall be paid at the rate equal to the daily average of his total full-time earnings for the days on which he worked during the month immediately preceding his leave, exclusive of any overtime wages and bonus but inclusive of dearness allowance and the cash equivalent of the advantage accruing through the concessional sale to the employee of foodgrains and other articles.

(2) The cash equivalent of the advantage accruing through the concessional sale to the employee of foodgrains and other articles shall be computed as often as may be prescribed on the basis of the maximum quantity of foodgrains and other articles admissible to a standard family.

Explanation.—The explanations to sub-section (3) of section 8 shall be applicable for purposes of determining standard family under this sub-section.

17. Payment in advance in certain cases.—An employee who has been allowed leave for not less than four days in the case of an adult, and for not less than five days in the case of a young person, shall before his leave begins, be paid the wages due for the period of leave allowed.

18. Mode of recovery of unpaid wages.—Any sum required to be paid by an employer under this Chapter but not paid by him shall be recoverable as delayed wages under the provisions of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act IV of 1936).

19. Power to make rules.—The State Government may, to carry out the purposes of this Chapter, make rules directing employers to keep registers containing such particulars as may be prescribed and requiring the registers to be made available for examination by Inspectors.

20. Power to exempt establishment.—Where the State Government is satisfied that the leave rules applicable to employees in an establishment provide benefits which in its opinion are not less favourable than those for which this Chapter makes provision, it may, by notification, exempt the establishment from all or any of the provisions of this Chapter, subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notification.

CHAPTER V

1. Substituted by Act 4 of 1969 w.e.f. 16.5.1969 by notification. Text of notification is at the end of the Act.

21. Application of the Payment of Wages Act.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act IV of 1936) (referred to in this section as “the said Act”), the State Government may, by notification, direct that subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), the said Act or any of the provisions thereof as in force on the date of passing of this Act by the State Legislature shall apply to all or any class of employees and their employers in establishments to which this Act applies, and thereupon, the said Act or the provisions thereof shall be applicable to the employers and employees, as if enacted in this Act.

(2) On the application of the provisions of the said Act to any establishment under sub-section (1), the Inspector appointed under this Act shall be deemed to be the Inspector for the purpose of the enforcement of the provisions of the said Act within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

22. Application of the Workmen’s Compensation Act.—The provisions of the Workmen’s Compensation Act, 1923 (Central Act VIII of 1923), as in force on the date of passing of this Act by the State Legislature, and the rules made thereunder by the State Government for the time being in force shall mutatis mutandis apply to employees and employers of shops and commercial establishments.

CHAPTER IX MISCELLANEOUS

34. Maintenance of registers and records and display of notices.—Subject to the general or special orders of the State Government, an employer shall maintain such registers and records and display on the premises of his establishment, such notices as may be prescribed. All such registers and records shall be kept on the premises of the establishment to which they relate.

35. Saving of certain rights and privileges.—Nothing in this Act shall affect any rights or privileges which an employee in any establishment is entitled to under any other law, contract, custom or usage, applicable to such establishment, or any award, settlement or agreement binding on the employer and the employee in such establishment, if such rights or privileges are more favourable to him than those to which he would be entitled under this Act.

36. Indemnity.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against the State Government or any officer of the State Government for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

37. Delegation of powers.—(1) The State Government may, by notification, authorize any officer or authority, subordinate to it, to exercise any one or more of the powers vested in it by or under this Act, except the powers under sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 1, sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 3, section 19, section 20, section 21, section 26 and section 40 subject to such restrictions and conditions, if any, as may be specified in the notification.

(2) The exercise of the powers delegated under sub-section (1) shall be subject to control and revision by the State Government or by such persons as may be empowered by it in that behalf. The State Government shall also have power to control and revise the acts and proceedings of any person so empowered.

38. Power of Government to suspend provisions of the Act during fairs and festivals.—On any special occasion in connection with a fair or festival or a succession of public holidays, the State Government may, by notification, suspend for a specified period the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act.

39. Notice of dismissal.—(1) No employer shall remove or dismiss an employee who has put in service under him continuously for a period of not less than six months, except for a reasonable cause and unless and until one month's previous notice or pay in lieu thereof has been given to him:

Provided that where misconduct of an employee is brought on record with proof at an enquiry held for the purpose, he shall not be entitled to the notice or pay in lieu of such notice.

(2) An employee removed or dismissed under sub-section (1) shall have a right of appeal to 1[such officers having jurisdiction over such areas or such classes of employees as may be prescribed]1 on the ground that there was no reasonable cause for the removal or dismissal or that he has not been guilty of misconduct as held by the employer.

1. Substituted by Act 36 of 1966 w.e.f. 25.4.1969.

(3) Where an employee has been removed or dismissed without reasonable cause or without proof of misconduct, the employee shall, where the employer does not agree to reinstate him, be entitled to such compensation as the appellate authority may determine, provided that such compensation shall not exceed an amount calculated at one month's pay for every year of service 1[x x x]1.

1. Omitted by Act 25 of 1997 w.e.f. 12.2.1998.

(4) Any person aggrieved by an order of the appellate authority may apply to the District Judge for a revision of such order and subject to the result of such application the decision of the appellate authority shall be final and binding on both the employer and the person employed.

(5) The amount payable as compensation under this section shall be in addition to any fine payable under section 30 and shall be recoverable as a fine.

(6) No employee who has been awarded compensation under this section shall be entitled to bring a civil suit in respect of the same claim.

(7) If under any other law or under the terms of an award, agreement or contract of service, any employee is entitled to a longer period of notice or to more favourable benefits that are provided in sub-section (1) or sub-section

(3) the provisions of the said sub-sections shall have effect as if such period of notice and such benefits had been enacted in this Act.

40. Power to make rules.—(1) The State Government may by notification, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, rules made under sub-section (1) may provide in respect of the health and safety and welfare of employees.

(3) In making rules under this section, the State Government may provide that a contravention of any rule shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to 1[ten thousand rupees]1.

1. Substituted by Act 12 of 2007 w.e.f.....

(4) The power to make rules conferred by this section is subject to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication.

41. Notifications and rules to be laid before the State Legislature.—Every notification issued under sub-section (3) and sub-section (4) of section 3, sub-section (1) of section 21 and sub-section (1) of section 37 and every rule made under section 40 shall be laid as soon as may be after it is issued or made before each House of the State Legislature while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions and if before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the notification or rule or both Houses agree that the notification or rule should not be made, the notification or rule, as the case may be, shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything done previously under that notification or rule.

42. Repeal and savings.—The Bombay Shops and Establishments Act, 1948 (Bombay Act LXXIX of 1948), as in force in the ¹[Belgaum Area]¹, the Hyderabad Shops and Establishments Act, 1951 (Hyderabad Act X of 1951), as in force in the ¹[Gulbarga Area]¹, the Madras Shops and Establishments Act, 1947 (Madras Act XXXVI of 1947), as in force in the ¹[Mangalore and Kollegal Area]¹, and the Mysore Shops and Establishments Act, 1948 (Mysore Act II of 1948), as in force in the Mysore Area, are hereby repealed:

Provided that section 6 of the ¹[Karnataka]¹ General Clauses Act, 1899 (¹[Karnataka Act]¹ III of 1899) shall be applicable in respect of such repeal and sections 8 and 24 of the said Act shall be applicable as if the said Acts had been repealed and re-enacted by this Act.

1. Adapted by the Karnataka adaptation of laws order 1973 w.e.f. 1.11.1973.

43. Repeal of Central Act XVIII of 1942.—On and from such date on which this Act applies to any area of the State, the Weekly Holidays Act, 1942 (Central Act XVIII of 1942), shall in such area stand repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall not affect,-

- (a) the previous operation of the said enactment or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or
- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the said enactment; or
- (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against the said enactment; or
- (d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid;

-and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been applied to that area.

44. Power to remove difficulties.—If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act in consequence of the transition to the said provisions from the provisions of the Acts in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, the State Government may by notification, make such provisions as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.
