5. Applications for recruitment.- The special recruitment committee shall advertise categories of posts and the number of vacancies to be filled under these rules in the official Gazette specifying the conditions of eligibility, the nature of selection, the classification of posts in accordance with the reservations of posts provided by or under any law or order for the time being in force and invite applications from the eligible candidates. Abstract of such advertisement shall also be published at least in two leading newspapers having wide circulation in the State, of which one shall be in Kannada.

6. Mode of recruitment.-The selection of candidates under these rules shall be made by the special recruitment committee in the manner specified below,-

(1) The special recruitment committee shall, from among the candidates who have applied in pursuance to the publication inviting applications under rule 5 and who are qualified under rule 4 and rule 8, prepare a list of candidates eligible for appointment under these rules, in respect of each category of post, in the order of merit, the merit being determined on the basis of marks obtained in the qualifying examination, specified in column (5) of the schedule and taking into consideration the weightage under sub-rule (4) and the orders, rules or any law in force, relating to reservation.

(2) Where more than one qualifying examination is specified, merit shall be determined on the basis of average percentage of marks secured in those examinations.

(3) Where different qualifying examinations are specified alternatively and if a candidate has passed more than one such qualifying examination, the percentage of total marks obtained in such qualifying examination in which he has obtained highest percentage of marks shall be considered.

(4) A weightage of two percent for each completed year of service, subject to a maximum of twenty percent shall be given to a candidate, who has served in Government hospital or health care center coming under the purview of the Directorate of Health and Family welfare services or Medical Education and schemes coming under the purview of National Rural Health Mission or National Health Mission in Karnataka, on contract basis in the post of Junior Medical Laboratory Technologist, Pharmacists and Junior Medical Radiological Technologist as the case may be.

(5) If two or more candidates have secured equal percentage of total marks in the qualifying examination, the order of merit in respect of such candidates shall be fixed on the basis of their age, the candidate who is older in age being placed higher in the order of merit. The number of candidates to be included in such list of eligible candidates shall be equal to the total number of vacancies specified in the schedule.

7. List of selected candidates.- (1) The special recruitment committee shall, from among the merit list of candidates prepared under rule 6 and qualified under rule 8, prepare a select list of selected candidates equal to the number of vacancies notified for each category of posts, in the order of merit and the orders, rules or any law in force, relating to reservation.

(2) The special recruitment committee shall also prepare an additional list of such candidates, not exceeding twenty five percent of the vacancies notified, not included in the main list prepared under sub-rule (1) in the same manner. There shall be atleast one candidate in the additional list belonging to each of the category of reservation (horizontal and vertical) represented in the list prepared under sub-rule (1).

(3) If the candidate, whose name is included in the main list prepared under sub-rule (1), fails to report for duty within the specified or extended period of joining time, as the case may be, to that extent a candidate belonging to same category of vertical and horizontal reservation in the additional list shall be appointed. If the candidate selected from the additional list also fails to report for duty then such vacancy shall be treated as fresh vacancy.

(4) The list prepared under sub-rule (1) and (2) shall be published in the official Gazette and on the website of the appointing authority or and on such other media of publicity as it deems fit for information of the candidates. The appointing authority shall intimate the fact of selection to the selected candidates by registered post or any other electronic communication.

(5) The list prepared under sub-rule (1) and (2) shall be valid till all vacancies notified are filled or until the publication of next selection list, whichever is earlier.

8. Knowledge of Kannada Language.- No candidate shall qualify for selection to the posts specified in the schedule, unless he qualifies in Kannada language test by securing minimum fifty marks in the test comprising of one paper carrying total of one hundred and fifty marks. The standard of the Kannada language test paper shall be that of second language Kannada at SSLC.
