STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

I

Amending Act 38 of 2014.- The Karnataka Land Grabbing (Prohibition) Bill 2007 with the following Statement of Objects and Reasons was passed by both the houses of the Karnataka State Legislature namely;-

“It has come to the notice of the Government that there are organised attempts on the part of certain lawless persons operating individually and in groups to grab either by force, or by deceit or otherwise lands belonging to the Government, a local authority, a religious or charitable institution or endowment, including a wakf. The land grabbers are forming bogus co-operative housing societies or setting up fictitious claims and indulging in large scale and unprecedented and fraudulent sales of land through unscrupulous real estate dealers or otherwise in favour of certain sections of people, resulting in large scale accumulation of the unaccounted wealth. As public order is adversely affected by such unlawful activities of land grabbers in the State, particularly in respect of urban and urbanisable lands, the State Government has felt that it is necessary to curb such unlawful activities immediately by enacting a special law in this regard.

Hence, the State Government of Karnataka with a view to prohibit the activities of land grabbing and to provide for matters connected therewith has proposed to bring the Karnataka Land Grabbing (Prohibition) Act into force. Apart from declaring land grabbing as unlawful, the State Government desires to prohibit land grabbing. Therefore, it is proposed to provide for penalty for offences in connection with land grabbing to effectively implement this Act and for the purpose of providing speedy enquiry into an alleged act of land grabbing and trial of cases in respect of the ownership and title to, or lawful possession of the land grabbed by Notification constitute a Special Court. It is felt that the State Government will be able to curb the illegal land grabbing by enforcing the proposed legislation.”

Accordingly, the Karnataka Bhu Kabalike (Nishedha) Vidheyaka, 2007 as passed by both the houses the State Legislature was sent to Government of India to obtain the assent of the President.

The Government of India in its letter No.17/20/2007- Judl and PP dated 16/20.8. 2007, on the suggestion made by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs had suggested modification to the Karnataka Bhu kabalike (Nisheda) Vidyeyaka 2007. Accordingly clause 6 of the Bill has been modified by incorporating Explanation for the word Company and Director.

The Government of India vide letter No. 17/20/2007 – Judl & PP dated:18-06-2010, had suggested modifications to sub-clause (2) of clause 2 of the Bill on the suggestions made by the Ministry of Minority Affairs and also to the sub-clause (2) of clause 1 of the Bill on the suggestion made by the Department of Legal Affairs. Accordingly the State Government vide its letter No. DPAL 22 SHASHANA 2007, dated 7.9.2010 Communicated its acceptance to make the said modification by amending the Bill, by extending the provisions to the lands belonging to the Wakfs, Hindu Religious Institutions and Charitable Endowments and requested the Government of India to obtain the assent of the President to the said Bill and also to obtain previous instructions to the modifications to be issued in the form of an Ordinance.

The Government of India vide its letter No. 17/20/2007 – Judl & PP dated:03-03-2010/2011 has directed the State Government to consider withdrawing the present Bill (LA Bill No.27 of 2007) and submit a modified Bill instead of concurrent promulgation of any amendment Ordinance.

Hence the Bill.

[Entry 18 and 64 of List II of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India.]

Amending Act 30 OF 2020.- It is considered necessary to amend the Karnataka Land Grabbing Prohibition Act, 2011 (Karnataka Act 38 of 2014), to,-

- (i) clarify the definition of land;
- (ii) make provisions for prescribing procedure of the special court;
- (iii) stipulate the jurisdiction of civil court and special court ;
- (iv) make a provision for appeal against orders of the special court; and
- (v) certain consequential amendments connected therewith or incidental thereto.

As the matter was urgent and both houses of the Karnataka state legislature were not in a session, therefore the Karnataka Land Grabbing Prohibition (Amendment) Ordinance, 2020 (Karnataka Ordinance No.6 of 2020) was promulgated to achieve the above object.

This Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance.

Hence the Bill.

(2) The Special Court shall for the purpose of taking cognizance of the case, consider the location, or extent or value of the land alleged to have been grabbed or of the substantial nature of the evil involved or in the interest of justice required or any other relevant matter.

¹[(3) All alleged acts of land grabbing shall be tried only by the Special Court constituted for the area in which the land is situated, or where there are more Special Courts than one for such area, by such one of them as may be specified in this behalf by the Government.]¹

1. Substituted by the Act 30 of 2020 w.e.f. 10.04.2020

Provided that if, in the opinion of the Special Court, any application filed before it, is prima facie frivolous or vexatious, it shall reject the same without any further enquiry.

(4) The Special Court shall determine the order in which the civil and criminal liability against a land grabber be initiated. It shall be within the discretion of the Special Court whether or not to deliver its decision or order until both civil and criminal proceedings are completed. The evidence admitted during the criminal proceeding may be made use of while trying the civil liability. But additional evidence, if any adduced in the civil proceedings shall not be considered by the Special Court while determining the criminal liability. Any person accused of land grabbing or the abetment thereof before the Special Court shall be a competent witness for the defence and may give evidence on oath in disproof of the charge made against him or any person charged together with him in the criminal proceeding:

Provided that he shall not be called as a witness except on his own request in writing or his failure to give evidence shall be made the subject of any comment by any of the parties or the special court or give rise to any presumption against himself or any person charged together with him at the same proceeding.

(5) (a) The Special Court shall, while deciding the civil liability of a person shall follow its own procedure which is not inconsistent with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

Provided that, if the Special Court is of the opinion that there are no sufficient grounds for proceeding, the Court shall dismiss the complaint or drop further proceedings and in every such case it shall briefly record reasons.

Provided further that, the course of the trial of summons case relating to an offence under this Act, it appears to the special Court that in the interests of justice, the offence shall be tried in accordance with the procedure for trial of warrant cases, the special Court may proceed to re-hear the case in the manner provided by the code of Criminal procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974) for the trial of warrant-cases and may recall any witness who may have been examined.]¹

1. Substituted by the Act 30 of 2020 w.e.f. 10.04.2020

(c) When a person is convicted of an offence of land grabbing attended by criminal force or show of force or by Criminal intimidation, and it appears to the Special Court that, by such force or show of force or intimidation, the land has been grabbed, the Special Court may if it thinks fit, order that possession of the same be restored after evicting by force, if necessary.

(6) Every case under sub-section (1) shall be disposed of finally by the Special Court, as far as possible, within a period of six months from the date of institution of the case before it.

(7) Every finding of the Special Court with regard to any alleged act of land grabbing shall be conclusive proof of the fact of land grabbing and of the persons who committed such land grabbing, and every judgment of the Special Court with regard to the determination of title and ownership to, or lawful possession of; any land grabbed shall be binding on all persons having interest in such land:

Provided that the Special Court shall, by notification specify the fact of taking cognizance of the case under this Act. Such notification shall state that any objection which may be received by the Special Court from any person including the custodian of evacuee property within the period specified therein shall be considered by it:

Provided further that where the custodian of evacuee property objects to the Special Court taking cognizance of the case, the Special Court shall not proceed further with the case in regard to such property:

Provided also that the Special Court shall cause a notice of taking cognizance of the case under the Act, served on any person known or believed to be interested in the land, after a summary enquiry to satisfy itself about the persons likely to be interested in the land.

(8) It shall be lawful for the Special Court to pass such order as it may deem fit to advance the cause of justice. It may award compensation in terms of money for wrongful possession of the land grabbed which shall not be less than the amount equivalent to the market value of the land grabbed as on the date of the order and profits accrued from the land payable by the land grabber to the owner of the grabbed land and may direct re-delivery of the grabbed land to its rightful owner. The amount of compensation and profits, so awarded and costs of re-delivery, if any, shall be recovered as an arrear of land revenue in case the Government is the owner, or as a decree of a Civil Court, in any case to be executed by the Special Court:

Provided that, the Special Court shall, before passing an order under this sub-section, give to the land grabber an opportunity of making his representation or of adducing evidence, if any, in this regard, and consider every such representation and evidence.

10. Special Court to have the powers of the Civil Court and the Court of Session.- Save as expressly provided in this Act, the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, shall apply to the proceedings before the Special Court and for the purposes of the provisions of the said enactments, Special Court shall be deemed to be a Civil Court, or as the case may be, a Court of Sessions and shall have all the powers of a Civil Court and a Court of Sessions and person conducting a prosecution before the Special Court shall be deemed to be a Public Prosecutor.

¹[10-A. Bar of jurisdiction of civil Courts.- No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie in any civil court in respect of any dispute, question or other matter relating to any Government land or other matter which is required by or under this Act to be determined by a special Court.

10-B. Special Court to hold proceedings expeditiously and to furnish to the parties copies of its decision.- Whenever an application is made to the special Court or when proceedings are initiated suomoto for the determination of any dispute, question or other matter relating to grabbed land, the special Court shall conclude its proceedings within a period of six months from the date of initiation of such proceedings and give its decision in writing to each of the parties to the dispute.]¹

1. Inserted by the Act 30 of 2020 w.e.f 10.04.2020

11. Burden of proof.- Where in any proceedings under this Act prima facie proved to be the land owned by the Government, the Special Court shall presume that the person who is alleged to have grabbed the land is a land-grabber and the burden of proving that the land has not been grabbed by him shall be of such person.

12. Staff of the Special Court.- (1) The chairman of the Special Court may appoint officers and other employees required to assist the Special Court in the discharge of its functions under this Act.

(2) The categories of officers and employees who may be appointed under sub-section (1), their salaries, allowances, method of recruitment and other conditions of service and the administrative powers of the Chairman of the Special Court shall be such as may be prescribed, after consultation with the Chairman.

13. Power to try offences.- All offences punishable under this Act shall be cognizable. Every offence punishable under this Act shall be tried by a magistrate of the first class specially empowered by the Government in this behalf by notification in the official gazette wherever Special Court is not constituted.

14. Persons acting under the Act to be public servants.- Every person acting under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

15. Protection of persons acting in good faith.- No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any officer or employee of the Special Court or any officer of the Government for anything done in good faith or intended to be done under this Act or the rules made thereunder.

16. Act to override other laws.- The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or custom, usage or agreement or decree or order of a court or any other tribunal or authority.

17. Review.- The Special Court may in order to prevent the miscarriage of justice review its judgment or order passed under section 9 but no such review shall be entertained except on the ground that it was passed under a mistake of fact, ignorance of any material fact or an error apparent on the face of the record:

Provided that it shall be lawful for the Special Court to admit or reject review petitions in circulation without hearing the petitioner:

Provided further that the Special Court shall not allow any review petition and set aside its previous order or judgment without hearing the parties affected.

¹[17-A. Appeals.- (1) An appeal against any final order by the special Court determining the civil liability of the parties shall lie to the High Court, if the High Court is satisfied that the case involves a substantial question of law,-

- (i) in an appeal under this sub section, the memorandum of appeal shall precisely state the substantial question of law involved in the appeal; and
- (ii) the appeal shall be heard on the question so formulated and the respondent shall, at the hearing of the appeal be allowed to argue that the case does not involve any such question:

Provided that, appeal shall be filed before the High Court within thirty days from the date of the order.

Provided further that, if the appeal is filed beyond the period of thirty days, the High Court shall condone the same, on sufficient cause being shown, but not beyond a period of sixty days.

(2) Any appeal against order of acquittal or conviction determining any criminal liability under this Act shall lie to the High Court. The High Court may exercise, so far as may be applicable, all the powers conferred by the chapters XXIX and XXX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974) on a High Court as if, the special Court were a court of sessions trying cases within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the High Court.]¹

1. Inserted by the Act 30 of 2020 w.e.f 10.04.2020

18. Power to make rules.- (1) The Government may, by notification, after previous publication make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every rule made under this section shall, immediately after it is made, be laid before each House of the State Legislature if it is in session and if it is not in session in the session immediately following, for a total period of fourteen days which may be comprised in one session, or in two successive sessions and if before the expiration of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or in the annulment of the rule, the rule shall, from the date on which the modification or annulment is notified, have effect only in such modified form or shall stand annulled, as the case may be; so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

19. Power to make regulations.- (1) The Special Court may, by notification, with the concurrence of the Government, make regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder relating to the procedure to be followed for the conduct of the cases and for regulating the manner of taking decisions.

(2) The Special Court may cause a public notice of the substance of such regulations for the information of the general public.

(3) Every regulation made under this section shall, immediately after it is made, be laid before such House of the Legislature of the State if it is in session, and if it is not in session in the session immediately following for a total period of fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions and if before the expiration of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following the State Legislature agrees in making any modifications in the regulation or in the annulment of the regulation, the regulation shall, from the date on which the modification or annulment is notified, have effect only in such modified form or shall stand annulled, as the case may be; so however, that any such modification or annulments shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that regulation.

20. Transfer of pending cases.- Any case, pending before any court or other authority immediately before the constitution of a Special Court, as would have been within the jurisdiction of such Special Court, shall stand transferred to the Special Court as if the cause of action on which such suit or proceeding is based had arisen after the constitution of the Special Court.

21. Prohibition of alienation of lands grabbed.- Any transaction relating to an alienation of a land grabbed or any part thereof by way of sale, lease, gift, exchange, settlement, surrender, usufructuary mortgage or otherwise, or any partition effected or a trust created in respect of such land, which has taken place whether before or after the commencement of this Act shall, except to the extent ordered by the Special Court be null and void.
