CONDITONS FOR STORAGE

1. Tender for Storage

(a) All goods for storage shall be delivered at the warehouse properly marked and packed for handling. In case the warehouseman consider it necessary to make 'Pala' and standardize and change the packages, he will be entitled to do so and the depositors shall be liable to pay charges on the account. The Warehouseman may, at his discretion, refuse to accept goods which are in a condition not likely to stand storage. The Warehouseman shall give identity mark on each package.

(b) The word 'Lot' as used herein means the unit or units of goods for which a separate account is to be kept by the Warehouseman. Delivery of all or any units of a lot shall be made without subsequent sorting except by special arrangement and in that event subject to a charge.

(c) The Warehouseman undertakes to store and deliver goods only in the packages in which they are originally received, unless otherwise provided by arrangement in writing between the Depositor and Warehouseman.

2. Storage Charges :-

(a) Storage Charges will be made on monthly basis and number of days in excess of a month will be charged on weekly basis. Unless otherwise provided, where storage is for less than a month, the charges will be for the whole month.

3. Delivery Requirement :-

(a) Instructions for delivery or transfer of goods shall always be in writing and signed by the depositor or his authorized agent.

(b) When a Warehouse Receipt has been issued, no goods covered by that receipt shall be delivered unless the receipt properly endorsed is surrendered for cancellation or for endorsement of partial delivery thereon.

(c) Should a Warehouse Receipt be lost or destroyed, goods covered by it shall not be delivered until the person lawfully entitled to possession of the goods, obtains and surrenders a duplicate receipt. The duplicate will be issued on such terms and conditions and on furnishing a bond to indemnify Warehouseman against any liability as provided under the Act and the Rules.

4. Liability:

(a) The Warehouseman undertakes to exercise reasonable care and diligence required by the law for keeping the goods.

(b) The Warehouseman's liability is limited to the value of goods on the date of deposit.

(c) Perishable goods of goods which are susceptible to damage through temperature or humidity changes are accepted only at owner's risk for such damage as might result from general storage conditions.

(d) The Depositor of goods shall examine the contents of goods at the time of taking delivery and shall give notice in writing with full particulars of the loss or damage, if any, caused to the goods, to the Warehouseman, forthwith at the time of taking delivery. A copy of the notice shall also be sent to the prescribed authority. No claim against the Warehouseman shall be valid if the notice of loss or damage has not been given by the depositor. Similar notice for claim for damages shall be given to the Warehouseman by the depositor in case the depositor comes to know of the loss damage while the goods are deposited in the Warehouse.

(e) The Warehouseman is not responsible for the usual and customary shrinkage in weight and effect on quality during storage due to natural causes.

(f) The quality condition, value and content of goods are unknown to the Warehouseman except when specifically mentioned in the Warehouse Receipt.

5. (1) When goods are transferred from one room to another or from one Warehouse to another, at the request of the depositor, a charge for handling and transport, if any, will be made.

(2) The Warehouseman may also transfer at his own expenses without notice, any goods in storage from one room to another in the warehouse provided transfer in values no charge in the class of storage.

6. Charges for handling, loading, unloading and extra services rendered in the interest of the depositor are to be paid by the depositor of goods in addition to the usual Warehouse charges.
