STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

I

Act 19 of 1996.- Ever since Dr. Svetoslav Roerich and Smt. Devikarani Roerich fell ill and were confined to private living in a city hotel, vested interests started damaging the identity of the property comprised in their estate, popularly known as Tataguni estate and tried to usurp possession of the said property. The artifacts and art objects, carving and important paintings are deteriorating due to lack of attention. The rich forestry on the land is getting depleted on account of the impracticability of taking preventive measures in the absence of clear title in respect of the property. The valuable jewellery and artifacts are being sold underground and appropriated by persons who by virtue of their employment association were close to the Roerichs.

It is therefore considered necessary that the Roerich and Devikarani Roerich estate be acquired in public interest and transferred to a Trust to be established under the Act in order to secure proper management of the said estate, so as to preserve the valuable tree growth, paintings, art objects and carvings and to establish an Art Gallery-cum-Museum.

Accordingly a draft of the Roerich and Devikarani Roerich Estate (Acquisition and Transfer) Ordinance, 1992 was sent to the Government of India for obtaining the previous instructions of the President to the ordinance. The Government of India had now informed that they have no objection to the proposed legislation and has advised to introduce it as a Bill. The Bill among other things provides for the following:-

- (i) Acquisition of the Roerich and Devikarani Roerich Estate;
- (ii) Payment of a sum of Rs. 5 crores for the vesting of the estate in the Government;
- (iii) Appointment of Commissioner of payment for the purpose of disbursing the amount;
- (iv) Transfer of the estate to a Board of Trustees established for the purpose of administration and management of the estate.

Hence the Bill.

Amending Act 19 of 2001.- Constitutional validity of the Roerich and Devikarani Roerich Estate (Acquisition and Transfer) Act, 1996 is questioned before the Karnataka High Court in writ petition No. 32560 of 1996. In order to provide a more adequate and effective machinery in the Act for disbursement of amount to the owners, transferees and other interested persons in the Estate it is considered necessary to amend the said Act,-

(i) to empower the Commissioner of payment to refer the matter to the Civil Court in case of doubt or dispute as to the right of owners, transferees or other interested persons in the estate to receive the whole or part of the amount referred to in sections 7 and 8; and

(ii) to make disbursement of amount in accordance with the decision of the Court.

Hence the Bill.

(Vide L.C. Bill No. 1 of 2001 File No. SAMVYASHAE 35 SHASANA 2001)

III

Act 33 of 2017.- In Writ Petition Number: 32560/96 the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka has ordered that inclusion of Russian representatives in the Board of Trustees is ultra vires. Therefore it is necessary to omit the provisions regarding Russian representatives in the Board of Trustees.

Hence, the Bill.
